

Directions To The Business Design Centre

The Business Design Centre is conveniently located within walking distance from bus, tube and over ground stations.

The nearest underground station is Angel on the Northern Line. This is around a 5 minute walk from the Business Design Centre.

When you exit the station turn right onto Islington High Street heading towards the Royal Bank of Scotland.

Cross at the traffic lights to the other side of the road.

Walk past the O2 phone shop on the corner.

Walk down Upper Street and go past Lloyds Bank and the Steam Passage pub.

Continue walking until you see a newsagents shop on the corner.

Turn left and walk down the side street and you will see the Business Design Centre which is opposite the Hilton Hotel and next door to Ask Italian restaurant.

Directions from over ground- Highbury and Islington

When you exit Highbury and Islington station, turn right down the A1 road. You should go past The White Swan pub, McDonalds and Subway.

You should then continue to walk down the same road which then becomes Upper Street. Head past the Post Office and the Kings Head Theatre. Once you have gone past the restaurant Vivo turn right and go up the steps.

The entrance to the Business Design Centre is opposite the Hilton hotel and next door to Ask Italian restaurant.

